

LEGISLATIVE HARMONIZATION DUE TO ACQUIS COMMUNAUTAIRE

Author Roxana Ispas

N/A

Abstract:

The European legislation (community acquis), that is the judicial regulations adopted on the basis of the constitutive agreements of EU, mainly The Treaty from Rome, Maastricht and Amsterdam, represents the totality of the judicial regulations that settle the activity of the EU institutions, the community actions and policies. It is divided into several domains such as: free circulation of goods, free circulation of people, free circulation of services, free circulation of capital, the right of commercial companies etc.

Keywords: European legislation, community actions, policy

JEL codes:: F20, F21, F22, F23