

Common Agricultural Policy

Author Larisa-Loredana Dragolea

N/A

Abstract:

The aim of the common agricultural policy is to provide farmers with a reasonable standard of living and consumers with quality food at fair prices. The way these aims are met has changed over the years. Food safety, preservation of the rural environment and value for money are now all key concepts.

Keywords: agricultural policy, common policy

JEL codes:: O13