

The Risk Management and the Decisional Activity

Author Marius Gabriel PETRESCU

N/A

Author Adrian NEACSA

N/A

Author Alin DINITA

N/A

Abstract:

The main objective of the risk management characteristic actions is the maintaining of the stability in working by the optimization of the use degree of the resources specific to the operation, inspection and reparation of the systems which are in use. The paper tries to bring arguments concerning the necessity to the scientific coordination of the works of inspection and evaluation of the technical stage with effects on the increase of the creep risk to the process installations.

Keywords: risk management, decisional activity

JEL codes:: G32, D81